Good News February 2018

Year of Prayer

February's prayer:

*O Lord, Master of my life, preserve me from the spirit of sloth
and distraction
and the spirit of envy and vain speaking.
Grant instead to me your servant the spirit of purity and humility
and the spirit of patience and love.
O Lord and King, give me grace to know my own sins
and not to think evil of my brothers and sisters
for you are blessed for ever and ever. Amen.*

(A Prayer of St Ephrem for Lent)

Letter from the Vicar

The new year brings work. We have had the holiday season and the turning of a year means resolutions, new plans and projects and back to work or school. I know some parishioners are retired, but I am sure the memory is still with you and also that being retired doesn't usually mean doing nothing; very far from it! What being retired may mean is being your own boss. Sometimes I think I am my own boss (God excepted), but rightly there are always the needs of others and then there are bishops and the like. Such folk don't always get a great press (rather like politicians and others in authority), but this month my area bishop, the Bishop of Horsham has written a lovely little piece on this Year of Prayer, which I enclose below:

Early in February, the Church remembers Jesus being presented in the Temple. Wise and holy old Simeon utters the words of the Nunc Dimittis, including: to be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of your people, Israel. It is the proclamation that Jesus is not simply for those associated with him, the Israelites, but for everyone else as well, the non-Israelites, the Gentiles. Clergy get used to people casually referring to God and to prayer as 'your department' or 'your business'. 'Have a word with your boss' people joke; 'say one for me.' It is as if people acknowledge prayer as valuable, even important, but consider it someone else's business. Perhaps there is too much truth in those jokes that imply prayer is for the specialists or professionals rather than everyone else. The 2018 Year of Prayer reminds us that prayer in the name of Jesus, like Jesus himself, is for everyone and not just for those most publicly associated with him. Certainly clergy should pray for their people daily at Morning and Evening Prayer, but they are also bidden to ring the church bell to tell everyone that it is happening. Church bells both announce that people are being prayed for and call them to join in whether in Church or elsewhere. If you cannot hear a church bell, you can set an alarm on your watch or mobile phone creating a regular reminder to pray. There are many opportunities to learn about praying this year, not least in Lent which also begins this month, but let me commend to you the Daily Prayer of the Church, which you can download to your PC, smart-phone or tablet. Just visit your App Store, search for Church of England, download and join in.

With prayers and good wishes,
Mark Horsham

So, sometimes bosses help and support one's own work, but clearly they are not there to get thee and me off the hook! Any of us can reach out to God and make time and space for prayer. And listen out for our bells...
