Easter Day 2021

My Dear Friends,

Alleluia! Christ is Risen- He is risen indeed, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Today we celebrate and rejoice. While we have come to this Feast in a less than familiar manner, we find ourselves once again, numbered among those first disciples who approached the open tomb. Those who were bewildered, alarmed and bereft. And we have been changed just as Mary was after her encounter with the risen Christ in the garden.

By this point, having journeyed diligently through Lent, ridden the emotional rollercoaster of Holy Week- Good Friday and the rolling back of the stone, we might feel that it is time to ease into a little break, but this isn't so, this is the time our work begins!

'We are witnesses to all that he did' (Acts 10:39)

And so, we are called to action 'He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead.' (Acts 10: 42). These words are not simply Peter's to those who were immediately around him, but to us and all followers of the risen Christ throughout all time.

Fuelled by hearing again the revelation of the great mysteries of our faith, by renewing our baptismal promises and shouting aloud once more that HE IS RISEN- let us be united as we journey these days of Easter.

Let us be as faithful in our keeping of the feast as we were in keeping the fast (if not more so!)- For now the 40 days of fasting are over, the 50 days of feasting begin!

As we look towards returning to public worship later this month, we see signs of hope all around us, that we might be edging towards a return to more familiar times. But, my friends, do not wait until we meet together in church to set to work and to rejoice in the resurrection- for that celebration is for today, and every day!

To help us as we go, I provide the Stations of the Resurrection. I encourage you to take a reading each day of the next couple of weeks. Let us be encouraged by those who encountered and were changed by the Risen Christ in those first days and pray that we may find personal encouragement as we find ourselves in our own time of resurrection!

May you all know the peace of the risen Christ this day and always.
